

CONFIDENTIAL

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 29 April 1970

25X1 1. [REDACTED] Miss Bledsoe, in the office of Senator Stuart Symington (D., Mo.), called to find out if we had any employment opportunities for an individual with a Masters degree, but no foreign language, and with work experience in the news and radio field, who is blind. After checking with Messrs. [REDACTED] 25X1 and [REDACTED] in the Office of Personnel, I told Miss Bledsoe that we had no openings and she thanked us for checking into the matter.

25X1 2. [REDACTED] Mr. Wilson, in the office of Representative Paul McCloskey (R., Calif.) called to ask for the name and number of the individual who could arrange a briefing for the Representative on Cambodia. Wilson said he was unable to supply any other specifics and did not know when the Congressman would squeeze 25X1 in any briefing since he is leaving the city tomorrow. I told Wilson that Mr. Maury should be contacted on this.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 21 April 1970

25X1 1. [redacted] Talked with Mrs. Jean Wilson, in the office of Senator Richard S. Schweiker (R., Pa.), about the referrals we had received from the Department of Defense and the State Department of the correspondence the Senator had received from [redacted] of 25X1 [redacted] Pennsylvania. I told Mrs. Wilson I assumed that the suggested reply which [redacted] had provided the Senator's office on 15 April had settled the matter and the referrals from the other departments had occurred after that date. Mrs. Wilson assured me that our response 25X1 had taken care of the matter and added that nothing further was required.

[redacted]

25X1 3. [redacted] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to ask if we know whether the official proceedings of the 19th Pugwash Conference held in Sochi, USSR, had been released or made public. I told him we would look into the matter and be back in touch.

25X1 In response to an earlier inquiry and based on the advice of [redacted] WH Division, I told Mr. Sourwine that we did not have any hard information on the publication date of the January/February issue of the Tri-Continental. He thanked us for our efforts.

CONFIDENTIAL